TRADITION & EXCELLENCE

MADE IN ITALY: Pennelli Faro has the headquarters and the entire production process in Italy, located in the historic and traditional brush manufacturing district of the Cremona area, producing some of the finest brushes on the market since 1971.

Ecology is an important aspect we always keep in mind. We respect the environment around us and our products do not contain any substance dangerous for human beings or nature.

Our premises are environmentally friendly and the energy is supplied by our geotermic plant of solar panels with zero emissions.
Innovation through creativity and forward thinking allows us to find better ideas, solutions and strategies, anticipating the market trends.

A dedicated team of technicians and our investments in the research and development of new equipment, together with the constant research of new materials and manufacturing processes, keep us definitely ahead in our field.

Our range of brushes covers presently the following areas: Cosmetic, Fine Art, Cake Design, Fashion Applications and Industry.
We manufacture each brush with craftsmanship: highest quality materials, attention for the details, natural sense of beauty and true passion for what we do.

STANDARD LINE OR FULL CUSTOMIZATION

Pennelli Faro has a wide range of brushes in its standard collections to choose from, but offering also the possibility to have fully customized and tailor made products.

Our reliable experience and attentive customer care allow us to meet the requirements and needs of all our clients.
Details are small but affect tremendously the whole. Pennelli Faro takes great care in every aspect of production and pays much attention to the inputs from customers, striving to get the magical details that transform a product into something more unique.

The brushes on the right side are part of the collection “The italian luxury experience” developed in 2013 to celebrate our traditions.
With the support of our strong internal marketing and graphic design department, we can also provide, together with the brushes, a full service project development. Different types of packaging solutions and POS materials that help to enhance the product’s value.

We understand how important it is for our clients to respect timing schedules and to have the products delivered on time. They can always count on our sharing the same priorities and putting a great emphasis on that!
